Dear Community Partner,

The award-winning Huntsville High Theatre Department is excited to welcome you to another fabulous season! HHS Theater alumni Meghan Browning Phelps is in her tenth year as program director. Meghan is a graduate of Jacksonville State University with a degree in Theatre and graduated this summer with an MFA degree in Theatre Education from Mississippi University for Women. We are also pleased to have Abby Gandy as part of our teaching and directing team. Abby has a Master’s degree from the Yale School of Drama and has experience in the professional theatre industry.

We hope you joined us last year for our incredible production of Sweeney Todd! We are excited to bring Guys and Dolls to the stage this year, and we expect to welcome large crowds of theatergoers. Guys and Dolls is a golden age, romantic comedy musical with a well known score and full of energy. The Huntsville High production will include amazing music, beautiful choreography, impressive sets, and around 150 students onstage and off. The 2024-2025 season also includes productions of A Christmas Carol and Women of Lockerbie as well as our devised competition piece that will be written, designed and performed by students for the Trumbauer competition.

Huntsville High Theatre receives no funding from the school or from Huntsville City Schools outside of salaries for the teachers and upkeep of the facilities. We rely heavily on support from the community to provide these impressive shows and provide wonderful opportunities for students. We could not maintain the quality that Huntsville High has become known for without the support of local businesses and sponsors.

We are offering the following sponsorship packages for exposure opportunities across the entire season:
